

Minnehaha Springs-Lockridge Cemetery

Located to left of route 92 (formerly 28) and north of Intersection with Rt.39. approximately one mile, and opposite site of Earl Dever later Floyd Davis Farm house. This was the home area of Lanty and Laura Lockridge. Their house was across from the spring and at the base of the hill facing south.

Same stone: Col. James T. Lockridge 1821-1886
Elizabeth "Lillie" Burgoyne Moser Lockridge
1835-1923

Same Stone: Lancelot Lockridge 1777-1859
Elizabeth Benson Lockridge 1779-1861

Same Stone: Joseph F. Seebert Feb.12,1801- Oct. 6, 1881
Rebecca Lockridge Seebert Nov. 14, 1804-
Sept 12,1885

Allie Florence Moore April 17, 1863- March 20, 1886
first wife of Horace M. Lockridge

Lanty W. Herold July 25, 1849- Nov.21,1908

Laura L. Lockridge -wife of Lanty W. Herold
May 29, 1859- Jan. 2, 1908

Vaughn Stanley Herold- June 3, 1894 age 1 yr, 10 mo. 5 days
son of Lanty and Laura Herold

An unidentified soldier of CSA named Edgar is buried where a pine tree now grows.

Julius Ann Lockridge El born, 7 years, thinks this is an unmarked grave of a young child of Lanty Lockridge